Summary

How Sunseeker have managed to pack so many features into 15m is nothing sort of a miracle. Two very generous cabins, a double dinette bed, large galley with a superb cockpit offering the best inside outside space possible. Open the roof, open the aft window and you are outside, at one with the aft deck and huge table or sun pad. Close it all up and get cosy or put on the AC. This lightly used example has all the toys, the gyro, jet RIB and hydraulic platform of course. Keenly for sale and all offers encouraged.

Accommodation

The Saloon is both a cockpit and a living space that is designed to be either inside or outside thanks to the multiple opening windows and hard top. It has comfortable seating positioned perfectly to watch TV or entertain. The large sideboard has practical storage along with an ice maker and wine cooler and sink. The hard wood stairs lead down to an open plan Galley with plenty of work top space to cook and a dinette opposite for eating or converting into a third double bed when required. The fore-cabin has a double bed which converts to two single beds and a good side en-suite bathing room. The owners full beam midship cabin somehow has good head room and a light air feel as well as a full size bath room
